Information pursuant to EU Regulation 2016/679 concerning data processing

Pursuant to Article 13 of Legislative Decree 196/03 and following the entry into force of EU Regulation 679/2016 in compliance with the provisions of Article 13 of the aforementioned European Regulation, we wish to communicate the following: The personal data you provide will be processed at METALLURGICA VENETA S.p.A. (data controller) located in Via Natta 21 in Lonigo (VI), Tel. +39 0444 835429, e-mail info@metallurgicaveneta.it, through paper and/or electronic recording and will be used for the sole purpose of:

- a) complying with the obligations established by law, regulations and/or current legislation;
- b) giving full execution to all contractual obligations, related to the storage, cutting to size, processing and of special steel, of common tools of aluminium and its alloys;
- c) sending information material concerning the products/services of METALLURGICA VENETA S.p.A.
- d) carrying out research and selection of staff following spontaneous application.

The data you provide can only be brought to the attention of third parties if it is deemed necessary and essential (or strictly functional) for METALLURGICA VENETA S.p.A. to carry out its activities; in any case, processing will be carried out by using methods that ensure security and confidentiality.

Data will be processed by our employees, collaborators and external companies that are strictly appointed and authorised, with the aid of paper, electronic or automated means, also through the use of e-mails.

The provision of personal data is mandatory for the fulfilment of the obligations arising from the contract and, generally, for those required by law, or for specific commercial requests by customers and/or potential ones. The eventual lack of provision could make it impossible to fulfil contractual obligations or to meet the requirements referred to in points c) and d).

In any case, the rights to rectification, deletion, limitation, notification, data portability and opposition can be exercised, by making a request to the following address info@metallurgicaveneta.it.

The collected data is stored in a manner that allows the identification of the data subjects only for the period of time needed to carry out the purposes for which it is processed.

To ensure the security of the processed data, an internal privacy document has been drawn up that states all the suitable measures to safeguard access and security of processed data . This document is regularly reviewed by METALLURGICA VENETA S.p.A.
